

McKenzie Broekstra

689 S. Downing Street
Denver, Colorado

(616)-446-3126
mckenziebroekstra@gmail.com

Objective

To obtain work within an agency or hospital that will provide a well-rounded medical and social understanding of the needs of individuals. All while observing and learning from peers. Eventually, to address the biopsychosocial needs of patients and families affected by medical circumstances to maintain, or improve their quality of life.

Education

Colorado State University- Fort Collins, Colorado	Aug 2016-Dec 2017
Major: B.S. of Social Work	GPA 3.67
Red Rocks Community College- Lakewood, Colorado	Jan 2015-May 2016
Major: Associate Arts	GPA 3.8
Colorado School of Mines- Golden, Colorado	Aug 2013-Dec 2014
Major: Geological Engineering

Work/Volunteer Experience

Halcyon Hospice and Palliative Care	Aug 2017-Dec 2017
SOWK 488 Internship
450+ Volunteer Hours
SOWK 286 Practicum	Sept 2016-May 2017
Putnam Elementary School
36+ Volunteer Hours
HDFS 470 Campus Connections: Mentoring At-Risk Youth	Jan 2017- May 2017
72+ Volunteer Hours
Grassroots Campaigns	June 2016-Aug 2016
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Field Manager for “Yes to Colorado End of Life Options” CampaignData Implementer for voter registrations
Saint Anthony’s Hospital Volunteer	Apr 2015- Dec 2015
60+ Volunteer Hours
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Information Desk AssociateWheelchair Certified

Certifications/Experience

Campus Connections

Student mentors spend four hours once a week with their mentee in a group setting to provide academic support and career planning, encourage positive social skills development, assist with goal setting, and implement wellness programming.

Youth Mental Health First Aid Certification (February 2017)

8-hour evidence-based certification course that teaches participants about common mental health and substance abuse issues among students and possible resources to assist

Psychological First Aid Certification (April 2017)

6-hour evidence-informed approach for assisting children, adolescents, adults, and families in the aftermath of disaster and terrorism.

CPR First Aid Certification (2015)